USE & CARE

Wait until your Live-Fire Grill is completely cool before putting on the Live-Fire Grill Cover and anti-sag bracket. Ensure that the folding trays are folded down before adding the cover.

Unfold the anti-sag bracket and space the legs evenly apart. Set the bracket on top of the fire tray so that the anti-sag support ends rest on the rim of the fire tray. Unzip the cover and pull it down over the sides of the Live-Fire Grill as far as possible, and zip the cover closed.

Minimal care is required. Hand-wash the cover with mild soap and warm water.

WARNING

Do not cover your Live-Fire Grill while hot. To avoid any damage to your Live-Fire Grill Cover, we recommend waiting until your Breco Grill is completely cool and the fire is out before putting on the cover to avoid any melting or damage to the fabric.

The Live-Fire Grill Cover is designed for outdoor use only.

Do not sit or lean onto the Live-Fire Grill Cover while the anti-sag bracket is used.
Do not use the X Series Lid while using the anti-sag bracket with the cover.
