

Gibraltar Standard (III) bridge

To install a new string, pass it through the string stopper ferrule from the back of the guitar body.

To adjust the height of the strings, use a 1.5mm hexagonal wrench to turn and adjust the height of each saddle (A).

To adjust the intonation, use a cross slot (+) head screwdriver to turn the intonation adjustment screws of each saddle on the back of the bridge (B).

