What You Need to Use Your NeoTV Player

- TV with HDMI port
- HDMI cable
- Broadband Internet connection
- A wireless or wired network
- Device with Internet browser for service activation

Connect to the TV

1. Make sure that your TV is on and set to display the correct video input.
2. Connect an HDMI cable (sold separately) to the HDMI port on your player and to the HDMI IN port on your TV.

3. Connect the power adapter to your player, and plug it into an electrical outlet.

Connect to Your Home Network

To use your player, you need to connect it to your home network with either a wireless or a wired connection. After you get your network ready, the onscreen guided setup helps you connect your player to your network.

IMPORTANT: Do not place anything on top of your NeoTV player. Placing objects on top of your player can interfere with the wireless signal or cause the player to overheat.

Wired Connection

Use an Ethernet cable (sold separately) to connect your player to a LAN port on your router.

Wireless Connection

1. If you are using a wireless connection, place your player within range of your wireless network. For best wireless reception, avoid enclosing your player in a cabinet.

To connect wirelessly, you can use Wi-Fi Protected Setup (WPS), or you can select your network and enter its password using the onscreen setup guide.

2. If you do not receive a strong signal during the onscreen setup, rotate your player or move it closer to your router.

Onscreen Guided Setup

On your TV:

- Use the remote control to follow the NeoTV onscreen setup instructions, which include setting the output resolution to the TV, and the standby timing, connecting to a network, and checking for the latest NeoTV software update.
- Your player might download software updates or restart during setup.
- Once you complete setup, select a channel icon (such as Netflix or Pandora) to enjoy the content.
